A) LOOK AT THESE PICTURES AND CLASSIFY THEM IN THE DIAGRAM

The diagram consists of seven overlapping circles arranged in a circular pattern. The top circle is labeled 'sweet', the right one 'savoury', the bottom-right one 'bitter', the bottom one 'spicy', the bottom-left one 'salty', the left one 'sour', and the top-left one 'rocket'. Surrounding these circles are various food items with their names written below them:

- olives (top-left)
- bananas (top)
- rocket (top-right)
- apple cider vinegar (right)
- chocolate biscuit (right)
- salted peanuts (right)
- coffee (right)
- hot sauce (bottom-right)
- grapefruit (bottom)
- empanada (bottom-left)
- ginger (left)
- cheese sandwich (left)

My Food Festival Blog

Hello, I'm Mikela from Malta. Malta is a small country but there are lots of food festivals. Here are two of my favourites.

The first food festival of the year is the Citrus Festival in January. Farmers pick oranges and lemons in winter, so there's lots of fresh fruit to eat. At the festival, there's a cookery class, where you can learn a recipe for orange biscuits or make a lemon cake.

In April, there's a strawberry festival in my village. There is sweet food, like strawberry cakes and smoothies, and there is savoury food too. There is pasta with strawberry sauce! Or how about strawberry sushi? It's delicious, I promise!

Pre Reading
Do you know about a food festival in Chile?

Great blog, Mikela! In my town, there's a chilli festival in the summer.
