A) READ THE FOLLOWING TEXT

The treasure

1.Narrator: Karen's mum is a marine biologist. She goes diving with Karen. They see lots of amazing sea animals.

Captain: Can you hear me?

Karen's mum: Yes! We're ready to go.

2.Narrator: They look at the jellyfish. They've got long tentacles.

Karen's mum: Don't touch the tentacles. They're poisonous.

3. Narrator: Karen is looking an octopus. They live on the seabed. They've got gills and they eat crabs.

Karen: Oh no! Poor crab!

Karen's mum: Octopuses have arms, not tentacles!

4.Narrator: Karen is frightened. She can see a big shark. They swim fast and they're dangerous.

Karen: Mum! Look!

Karen's mum: Quick! Let's hide behind the rocks!

5.Narrator: Karen and her mum hide from the shark. Karen finds something interesting. She calls her mum.

Karen: Mum! It's shipwreck. Can we look inside?

6. Narrator: They are inside the ship. It's very dark. Karen is looking in a box. There are old coins inside.

Karen: Mum, Look! Treasure!

7. Narrator: There are lots of old coins on the ship. They are taking them to a museum.

Driver: Ok, captain! We've got the treasure!

8. Narrator: The coins are in the museum. Lots of people come to see them. Karen and her mum are famous now.

Karen: The coins are 500 years old.
